FOR SALE.

I control some 400 acres southwest of city, beginning one-half mile from city limits, all facing on Gentry road; good average upland and part of it well improved. I will cut it and sell in small farms of 10 acres and up in most any part of the tract. The location for home and building purposes is not surpassed around here and I desire to locate actual home builders. Deep water of excellent quality lies at about 210 feet, and if desired will supply a well where wanted. This is your chance to get a small farm close in and much of it overlooking the city of Bryan. Prices range from $35 to $80 per acre, your choice in locating. Easy terms. This doesn't include my home place which is not for sale. Also have two city lots close in, on west side. Price $700.

COBB REUNION

On Thursday and Friday, the 7th and 8th of August, the sixth annual Cobb reunion was held at Shiloh, and certainly a more suitable place could not have been selected than under the shade of those grand old elms and oaks which have already made the place famous. While there had been no special program arranged, every minute of the time was very pleasantly spent.

By daybreak of the first morning buggies, carriages and wagons began to arrive and this was kept up throughout the two days and nights of the reunion. After everybody had seen everybody else, the children were arranged for a march, led by that grand old patriot and Indian fighter, Mr. N. C. Duncan, and a little boy dressed as an Indian. This made us feel that the "skeery" times we read about were here again. The Mexican band furnished music for the march as well as during the remainder of the day. This alone was quite a treat to the crowd.

Words are inadequate to describe the dinner that was served, suffice to say that it was magnificent; there was plenty to eat for everybody.

The afternoon was spent in meeting old acquaintances and making new ones. Camping that night was the most fun of all.

Special entertainment was provided for the first part of the night, which was enjoyed by both old and young. The only dull part of the reunion was the few hours spent in sleep. Aside from a few false alarms given by the boys, this time was very quietly spent.

The most interesting feature of the second day was the Cobb march, composed of the Cobbs and their kindreds. This was a grand company of people that Robertson county ought to feel proud of and makes us wish that old Robertson county and all the state of Texas was filled with just such a citizenship.

Mrs. Albert Cobb of Hearne had the distinction and honor of being the oldest Cobb present, while there were about two hundred of the connection present.

There were at least 1200 people who enjoyed the reunion, coming from Franklin, Hearne, Bryan and Normangee.—Franklin Central Texan.
